OHIO SEVERE WEATHER AWARENESS POSTER CONTEST

Ohio grade schools will soon receive notice about the annual Severe Weather Awareness Poster Contest which is promoted by the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness. We encourage art and science teachers for first through sixth graders and special education/individualized instruction to have their students participate in this worthwhile and educational activity.

Background

The Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness has been teaching Ohioans about severe weather safety and preparedness since 1978. The purpose of the poster contest is to have students demonstrate through their artwork how people can protect themselves and others from the dangers and hazards that accompany severe weather in Ohio.

Participating schools send their first-place posters (per grade) to their regional National Weather Service Offices (see attached for NWS Office listings). The NWS offices will judge all poster entries and choose their top regional winners per grade. In early May, the Severe Weather Awareness Committee will judge the top regional posters to determine the state and overall state winners. Schools will be notified of their regional winners by the end of May; all regional winners will be invited to attend the awards ceremony held at the Ohio State Fair in August.

All regional winners and their parents or guardians will receive tickets to attend the awards ceremony at the Ohio State Fair on August 3, 2013. The students will receive a host of prizes, certificates and awards. State-level winners will receive additional prizes. The overall winner will receive even more prizes along with a personalized trophy. And, the overall winner's school will be loaned a "traveling trophy" to be displayed during the school year.

All winning posters from 2012 can be viewed on the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness website: www.weathersafety.ohio.gov.

How to Enter

Complete contest rules and entry forms are available on the OCSWA site. Go to Just for Kids and click on Contest Rules. Schools are encouraged to participate in the poster contest during Ohio's Spring Severe Weather Awareness Week, March 3-9, 2013. Schools should mail their first place posters per grade level to their appropriate NWS office. Poster entries must be postmarked by April 16, 2013.

All regional winners will be invited to attend the awards ceremony at the Ohio State Fair on Saturday, August 3, 2013. The state-level winners and the overall state winner will be announced near the end of the ceremony.

Instructions and Rules for the Severe Weather Awareness Poster Contest

As part of the 2013 Severe Weather Awareness campaign, the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness, in cooperation with the National Weather Service, is sponsoring its annual Severe Weather Awareness Poster Contest. This contest is open to all Ohio students in first through sixth grade and individualized instruction (special education) classes.

Participation is encouraged by all public, private and home schools. This drawing contest serves as a valuable tool to help students learn about severe weather safety and preparedness.

Any Ohio student in 1st -6th grade is eligible to enter. If a student is home-schooled, or if the school is not participating in the contest, the student can still enter the contest by submitting his or her poster with a copy of these rules to his or her local school's office.

Poster entries must illustrate the theme of Ohio severe weather safety. Posters will be judged on originality, effort and technical correctness. Severe weather awareness posters must cover one of these categories: tornadoes, flooding, thunder and lightning storms, winter storms or extreme heat (heat waves).

Poster size cannot exceed 11" x 17" paper. Larger sizes will not be considered.

Artwork must be original. Crayons, markers, pencils, paints, etc. can be used. No computer-generated artwork, words or photographs may be used. No clippings from magazines, newspapers or books may be used.

The back of the poster must clearly include the following information (see attached form):

Student's FIRST and LAST NAMES, AGE and GRADE

Home Address and County

Home Phone Number

School's Name, Address, County, Phone Number / Teacher's Name, E-mail Address

Regional National Weather Service Office

Schools are encouraged to conduct the contest during Ohio's Spring Severe Weather Awareness Week, March 3-9, 2013. Teachers should select their 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choice posters per grade that participated. Only first-place posters should be mailed to their appropriate National Weather Service Office by April 16 (see attached list – last page).

Blank certificates of participation will be available online at www.weathersafety.ohio.gov. Go to Just for Kids. Click on 2013 Certificate.

All entered posters become property of the National Weather Service and the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness. Regional and state-level winning posters will be returned to the students after the poster contest's Awards Ceremony at the Ohio State Fair, Saturday, August 3, 2013.

Additional information regarding the 2013 Ohio Severe Weather Awareness Poster Contest and severe weather safety and preparedness is available on the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness website: www.weathersafety.ohio.gov.
