

STATE OF OHIO
Executive Department

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Columbus

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, “Spring Severe Weather Awareness Week” provides the opportunity for Ohioans to prepare their homes, schools, businesses and organizations for the spring and summer months of potential severe weather and conditions associated with it, such as thunder and lightning storms, flooding/flash flooding from heavy rains, tornadoes and extreme heat; and

WHEREAS, NOAA and FEMA’s Ready campaigns are encouraging all Americans to mitigate, prepare for, protect against, respond to and recover from all hazards; and

WHEREAS, it is important that all state entities provide emergency safety and preparedness information to all Ohioans to help protect lives, reduce injuries and property damages, and to strengthen readiness and resiliency; and

WHEREAS, the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness and ReadyOhio are committed to educating the public on actions to take before, during and after inclement weather and other emergencies that typically impact Ohio; and

WHEREAS, Ohio’s news media is an advocate of promoting public education of severe weather forecasts, weather terms and severe weather safety; and

WHEREAS, through a coordinated effort with the Ohio Committee for Severe Weather Awareness and ReadyOhio, citizens prepare emergency and communications plans, organize disaster kits and practice safety drills to better protect themselves from spring and summer weather hazards and home emergencies.

NOW, THEREFORE, We, John R. Kasich and Mary Taylor, Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State of Ohio, do hereby recognize March 18-24, 2018 as

SPRING SEVERE WEATHER AWARENESS WEEK

throughout Ohio and encourage state agencies, local governments, emergency managers, educators and the media to assist OCSWA and ReadyOhio in informing Ohioans on the safety measures needed before disaster strikes. We also encourage Ohioans to practice their safety plans and drills during the Annual Statewide Tornado Drill, scheduled for Wednesday, March 21st at 9:50 a.m.

On this 8th day of March 2018;

John R. Kasich
Governor

Mary Taylor
Lieutenant Governor
